In F4 IS BACK 2015, participating student groups had the opportunity to give back to the community and put into practice the concept of social responsibility, by donating a portion of their business profits to a non-profit organization. This year, they chose the Young Executives Society, Inc. (YES!) as beneficiary.

RECEIPT

Received from GLOBAL (Students of BU 270), represented by Gordon Loyola, the sum of Five Dollars & 00/100 ($5.00) as donation to the Young Executives Society, Inc.

Received on April 17, 2015.

Rafael Pulmano, YES! Adviser

RECEIPT

Received from M2 EVES (Students of BU 270), represented by Sharina Polly, the sum of Twenty Dollars & 00/100 ($20.00) as donation to the Young Executives Society, Inc.

Received on April 15, 2015.

Rafael Pulmano, YES! Adviser

RECEIPT

Received from 5 EXPRESSIONS (Students of BU 270), represented by Patty Mario, the sum of Twenty-Threee Dollars & 80/100 ($23.80) as donation to the Young Executives Society, Inc.

Received on April 10, 2015.

Rafael Pulmano, YES! Adviser

.....

RECEIPT

Received from FAMY GROUP (Students of BU 270), represented by Yondeaver Santos, the sum of Two Dollars & 00/100 ($2.00) as donation to the Young Executives Society, Inc.

Received on April 10, 2015.

Rafael Pulmano, YES! Adviser

.....